Many families have pets.
My family has a dog.
I like to walk our pup.

Many families like to have fun.
My family plays run and catch.
We like to laugh.

Many families shop together.
My family shops for food.
We put good things in bags.

Many families play games.
My family likes soccer.
I want to kick the ball.

No family is just like mine.

Read Together

1. This book is about families. How are families in the book different? Name two ways.
2. Turn to page 6. The family is shopping. On your own paper, draw a box like this one. In it, draw a picture of what the family might do next.

3. Find the two words in the book that have the same vowel sound as the word talk.
4. Look at the picture of the boy on page 6. Tell what the family got at the store.
