

Bill's Yard Sale

Written by Julia Parrish
Illustrated by Steve Coleman

Phonics Skill

Inflected Endings (Spelling Change y to i)

spied flies cried tried

Bill and his wife cleaned Bill's shed. What will Bill do with his old things?

"We can give them away," said Bill. "Our friends can take all these things."

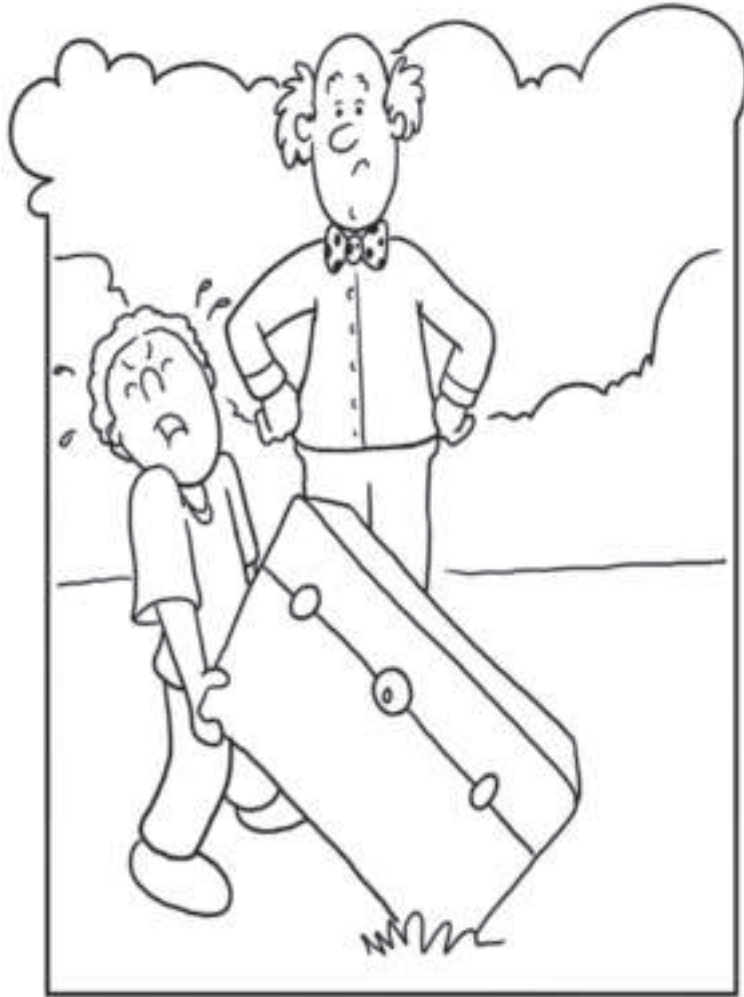

Fred rode by.
Fred spied Bill's funny fly.
"It still flies!" cried Fred.
Bill put Fred's fly on his cart.

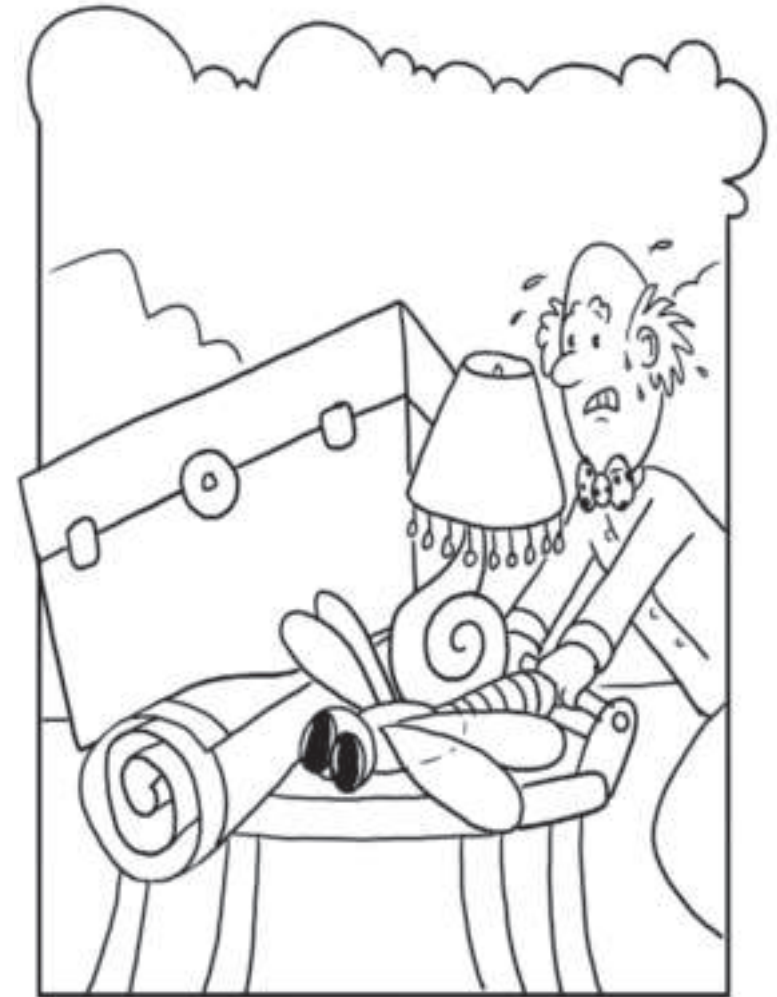

Ann came.
Ann liked Bill's big rug.
She tried to jam it in her car.
Bill put Ann's rug by the fly.

Then Lee stopped.
Lee tried to lift Bill's trunk.
The trunk is as big as Lee!

Bill put the trunk on his cart.
Bill pushed the cart to each home.

Then Bill went home.
What will he put
in his shed now?

