We looked around the forest.

We saw these trees and animals.

We looked around the forest.
We saw trees that grow
green leaves.

We looked around the forest.
We saw trees that grow
yellow leaves.

We looked around the forest.
We saw a squirrel eat a nut.

We looked around the forest.
We saw a huge bear find food
under the water.

Think and Share

Read Together

1. Why do you think the author wrote about a forest?
2. What did you do to get ready to read this book? How did that help you understand the book better?
3. An -ed ending on an action word means something happened in the past. Which word in the book ends in -ed?

-ed word

4. What did you learn about a forest by looking at the pictures in this book?

We looked around the forest.

We saw a bird in a tree.
