Putting on a Play!

Read Together

Many people work together to put on a play. One person is the director. The director tells the actors what to do. Other people make costumes. Others make and paint the scenery. Some helpers turn the stage lights on and off or play music.

1. Why did the children make costumes and scenery for the stage?

What happened?

The children made costumes and scenery for the stage.

Why did it happen?

2. What do Jake and Grace do? Check your answer by looking at the picture on page 5.
3. Make a list of all the characters' names in the story. Which ones have the long a sound?
4. Why do the moms and dads on page 7 have happy faces?
